A Companion Journal for Spirit-Filled Surrender

Susan "Lady D" Damon

Full 6 x 9 companion journal review draft - 365 daily reflection pages plus 1 February 29 bonus page

Prepared by IDC Publishing for author review. This is a designed review draft, not the final KDP upload file.

How to Use This Companion Journal

Use this journal beside the devotional volume, one day at a time.

Read the day's Scripture reference and devotional entry first, then bring your honest response here.

The goal is not polished language. The goal is surrendered truth before God: what He is showing, what He is healing, and what He is asking you to practice today.

Weekly prayers, Sabbath reflections, review pages, and bridge pages are included so the year can become a formed life rather than a stack of isolated mornings.

Guardrail for This Draft

Sabbath language refers to the seventh-day/Saturday Sabbath. Obedience is presented as a response to God's grace, not a method of earning God's love.

Final publication still requires author approval, copyedit, theological proof, ISBN and permissions decisions, KDP Previewer review, and physical proof review.

Review and Bridge

Where did the Father's care quiet fear? - Where did quiet courage become confession? - What convenient compromise was refused? - Where did truth become peaceable instead of avoidant? - How did Sabbath rest give breath in family pressure? - What close relational pain was met without bitterness? - What love was reordered under Jesus?

Filled with the Holy Spirit - Companion Journal

December Closeout: Living Sealed and Filled

Closeout Prayer

Weekly Prayer

Holy Spirit, close this devotional year by forming costly obedience, surrendered life, and fruitful welcome in me. Refresh the dry place where following Jesus feels costly, anoint today with trust that releases self-protection, and fill my welcome with love that points beyond me to Jesus and the Father who sent Him. Let this year end with a heart more yielded, more honest, and more available to You. Amen.
