

Lady D KDP Interior Finalization Kit

Generated: 2026-07-01

Status: Production-planning kit. This is not a final KDP upload package.

Purpose

The three dated devotional manuscripts are complete at 365 dated entries plus the February 29 bonus for each volume. This kit turns the next publishing phase into a concrete checklist: front matter, back matter, permissions, trim readiness, final interior design, and KDP upload gates.

Standard Front Matter System

Use this order unless the author or publisher makes a deliberate change:

1. Half-title page.
2. Series page.
3. Title page.
4. Copyright page.
5. Dedication.
6. Author welcome.
7. How to use this devotional.
8. Scripture and permissions note.
9. Sabbath and grace framing note.
10. Reader orientation.
11. January 1 devotional entry.

Standard Back Matter System

1. Closing year-end reflection.
2. Companion journal invitation.
3. Prayer of surrender for the next season.
4. About Susan "Lady D" Damon.
5. About IDC Publishing.
6. Other volumes in the Lady D Devotional Library.
7. Acknowledgments.

Permissions Gate

The current manuscripts include Scripture references, not full Bible quotation text. Before KDP upload, choose one of these paths:

1. Keep references only and avoid adding Bible quotation text.
2. Add full Scripture text only after selecting a translation and inserting its required copyright and permission notice.
3. If using public-domain text, still disclose the translation/source clearly and consistently.

Adventist Guardrail

Sabbath means seventh-day/Saturday Sabbath. Obedience must remain response to grace, not a way to earn God's love. Any final copyedit, typesetting, metadata, or marketing copy must preserve that theological frame.

Judge And Auditor Loop

Run three to seven passes depending on risk:

1. Editorial judge: reader clarity, voice, flow, and author-heart fit.
2. Theological auditor: Sabbath frame, grace/obedience frame, Jesus-centered Spirit language.
3. Permissions auditor: Bible references/quotations, copyright notice, ISBN/imprint data.
4. Production auditor: 6 x 9 margins, page count, running heads, page numbers, image resolution.
5. Retail judge: cover thumbnail readability, Amazon metadata, description, categories, and series cohesion.
6. Proof auditor: KDP Previewer, printed proof, spine alignment, trim, bleed, and barcode area.
7. Final release judge: all blockers closed and no placeholder text remains.

Remaining Gates Before True KDP Upload

- Final paper type and trim choices.
- Final front matter and back matter approval.
- Final author bio, dedication, acknowledgments, and ISBN.
- Final Bible permissions statement.
- Final copyedit of all three manuscripts and journals.
- Final approved 6 x 9 upload interiors with locked page counts.
- Regenerated full-wrap covers from final page counts.
- Final KDP metadata approval for all three devotionals and all three companion journals.
- Continue author-voice line edits beyond the completed Volume 1 Days 001-007 pilot batch.
- Author approval of companion journal rhythm and front/back matter.
- KDP Previewer pass for each upload file.
- Physical proof review before public release.

Recommended Next Production Step

Use the devotional and companion journal 6 x 9 review drafts plus the release upload readiness pack, trilogy proof audit pack, proof decision resolution pack, proof decision application pack, author-voice copyedit gate, and completed Volume 1 Days 001-007 line-edit batch as the next trilogy-wide copyedit and theological proof surface. The proof decision queue is clear; continue seven-day author-voice line edits, metadata approval, and final cover regeneration from locked page counts and paper type.
